

SOCIETY

FROM the present outlook there is to be a decided exodus of society during the spring and summer months. Many of the best known society folks have booked for the mainland, planning to spend several weeks in San Francisco at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Many are going to San Francisco in the early spring, but the majority have planned for a summer in California, and already many of the steamship lines are booked to capacity for the months of May, June and July.

The Hawaii building at the exposition has the signal honor of being the first of the buildings opened for business on the fair grounds. Mr. Albert P. Taylor having closed the office of the Hawaii Promotion Committee during the last week of December and moved to the fair building.

Californians are eagerly looking forward to the exhibition of the Hawaiian fish, "painted fish," as mainlanders are pleased to call them. And while the piscatorial display will be attractive, those in charge of Hawaii's exhibit promise that there will be many beautiful features on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazier's Dance.

An affair of the past week which was a delightful conclusion of the holiday entertainments was the dance at which Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazier entertained on Saturday evening at their beautiful home in Manoa valley. The spacious halls were decorated with the holiday colors—red and green—quantities of scarlet flowers and vines having been tastefully grouped in every available nook. An old-fashioned imitation fireplace was erected in the center of the huge court, and here the guests toasted marshmallows between the dances.

Some among Mr. and Mrs. Frazier's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ingram M. Stainback, Mr. and Mrs. Vida Thrum, Mr. and Mrs. John Erdman, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Clegg, Lieut. and Mrs. William Munter, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell, Mrs. Agnes Driver, Miss Mills, Lieut. and Mrs. Edgerley, Lieut. and Mrs. William Whitener, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nowell, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Warren, Mr. and Mrs. William Gaynor, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gignoux, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emmans, Mr. George Hodgkins, Mr. Clarkson Chane, Dr. Alford Wall, Mr. Harry Hoffman and others.

The All-States Dinner.
The All-States dinner to be given at the Parish house of Central Union church on Thursday evening is being anticipated with a great deal of pleasure by members of the Y. W. C. A. who are to participate in the affair. This year the dinner is for the members of the Y. W. C. A. alone, though a few invitations have been issued to nonmembers.

The hostesses for the tables of each state and country which is to be represented are planning unique decorations and novel stunts for the evening. Every hostess promises something out of the ordinary to her guests and it is expected that the affair will be most enjoyable. The ladies who will preside are:

Hawaii—Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock.
New York—Mrs. L. Tenney Peck.
Ohio—Mrs. Katherine M. Yates.
New England States—Mrs. A. F. Jackson.
Missouri—Mrs. L. R. Kilham.
England and the possessions—Mrs. W. W. Taylor.
Germany—Mrs. G. D. Schoor.
Illinois—Mrs. C. B. T. Moore.

Swimming During the Carnival.
The society ladies who were patronesses at the Hui Au Kai dance last January at which funds were raised to bring a girl swimmer here from the mainland, will be interested to know that Miss Dorothy Becker is to come here to take part in the Carnival swimming meet in February. She is to be brought to the islands by the Mid-Pacific Carnival Committee and the Hui Au Kai, the latter organization furnishing two hundred dollars raised for that purpose last year.

Returned to Honolulu.
The Matsonia arriving this week brought among her passengers Miss Vera Damon, who has been on the mainland for some years studying. Miss Damon is one of the most popular young women in Honolulu society and it is expected there will be a number of entertainments given in her honor during the coming season.

Tales From Rainbow Land.
M. Yates, "A Tale From the Rainbow Land," has won great favor on the mainland. Many of the papers have commented favorably on it.

The following clipping is from the San Francisco Call: "The quest of two tiny Menchunes from their homes in the cleft of a huge rock for evidence of human love and wisdom is related in an inspiring little story, 'A Tale From the Rainbow Land,' by Catherine M. Yates, which has just come off the press of Paul Elder & Co. It is an inspiringly pretty story, this little tale by Mrs. Yates. It is replete with bright maxims of love and wisdom that are related by two menchunes as they meet to exchange what evidence of human love they have gathered during each day. The book is attractively bound in deep blue covers, prettily decorated. Borders of blue surrounding the pages add to the attractiveness of the little volume.

Mrs. George W. Bailey (Alice Cooper) and child. Mrs. Bailey is one of the popular young matrons in Massachusetts society.

"A Tale From the Rainbow Land" is well worth while, especially in moments of skepticism when sweet, wholesome maxims and thoughts can chase dull care away.

Friday Afternoon at the Skating Rink.
As usual the girls of the "academy set" spent yesterday afternoon at the skating rink. This pastime has become so popular with the young people that should a Friday afternoon pass without skating it would seem as though there was a link missing in the chain of the week's events. Among those who visited the rink yesterday were Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Katie Singlehurst, Miss Mildred Brownell, Miss Clemence Gifford, Miss Madeline Chapin, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Ruthington, Miss Margaret Bryant, Miss Margaret Young, Miss Jessie Baldwin, Miss Inez Gibson, Lorrie Thurston, George Lindley, George Bromley, John Gifford, Arthur Brown, Frank Winter, John O'Dowda, Stanley Mott-Smith, Ernest Mott-Smith, John Warinner and Jere Smith.

Tea for Miss Violet Makee.
A delightful informal affair of this week was the tea given in honor of Miss Violet Makee on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. George Collins at her home on Kinau street. Attractive African daisies were effectively arranged in the decorations and the afternoon was devoted to cards and conversation. Among the guests were Miss Violet Makee, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Sylvan Purvis, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Ruth Soper and Miss Kealoha Kikele.

Princess Kalaniana'ole to Leave for the Mainland.
Among the passengers who are to leave for the mainland in the Matsonia next week is the Princess Kalaniana'ole, who is to join her husband in San Francisco. Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole will take a prominent part in the social affairs at the Hawaii building at the opening of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

The princess has many friends in San Francisco who are eagerly awaiting her arrival in that city, and who are planning numerous functions in her honor.

During the past two weeks many of the social affairs in Honolulu have been given for the princess. Following the opening at the exposition Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole will proceed to Washington where the prince will take up his duties as delegate to Congress.

Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., who has been visiting in New York and who is now in San Francisco, has been entertained extensively during the past few weeks, says the San Francisco Chronicle. Mrs. Cartwright has many friends in San Francisco who have honored her at many social affairs.

Among the affairs at which she was hostess was a theater party for Mr. and Mrs. Lot Kaulukou, who have taken the East and West by storm with their graceful dancing exhibitions. Lot Kaulukou is a Hawaiian boy who was given his first opportunity on the stage by Mrs. Montague Turner who took him to Europe and gave him a musical education. He sang for a few years in grand opera, going under the name of Carlos Sebastian. His wife was formerly Miss Dorothy Bentley of California.

Entertainment for Mrs. Elizabeth Booth.
Entertaining in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Booth, Mrs. J. A. McGuire was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon Wednesday at her home on Kalaniana'ole avenue. Covers were laid for Mrs. Elizabeth Booth, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. Carry Robertson, Mrs. Charles Lucas, Miss Ward, Mrs. Eddie Holt and others.

Dinner for the Princess Kalaniana'ole.
In honor of the Princess Kalaniana'ole Mrs. F. A. Reese entertained informally at dinner last evening at her home in Kalaheo avenue. Green was the predominating color in the decorations and lacy maidenhair fern was arranged in the centerpiece and upon the table cover. The guests included Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. Sheele, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lum, Mr. T. B. Thiele, Mr. McKenzie and Prof. De Graca.

In Honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Booth.
In honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Booth, Mrs. E. S. Cunha entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon on Friday afternoon at her home at Waikiki. Dainty cut flowers and ferns were arranged upon the table at which covers were laid for Mrs. Elizabeth Booth, Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. Charles Herbert, Mrs. Carrie Robinson, Miss Maggie McIntyre, Miss Kate McIntyre, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Charles Falk, Mrs. Gussie Schmitt, Mrs. McGuire, Mrs. Frank Woods and Mrs. Clara Schmitt.

Paintings by Mrs. Gussie Schmitt on Exhibition at the Fair.
The many friends of Mrs. Gussie Schmitt will be delighted to hear that a number of her recent paintings have been sent to San Francisco where they will be on exhibition at the exposition during the year. Mrs. Schmitt's paintings of flowers and Hawaiian fruit have won for her a splendid reputation as an artist, and many Honoluluans are proud possessors of her paintings.

Among the pictures which will be seen in San Francisco are three canvases showing the Hinano, or Hawaiian love flower, the Iala and the Tiger Lily, all three of which were painted at Mana, the home of the late Thelma Parker Smart on Hawaii. These paintings were recently on exhibition at Bergstrom Music Company on Fort street and were surveyed admiringly by hundreds of people who passed the store.

Kaimuki Card Club Meets.
The Kaimuki Card Club met for the first time after the holidays at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Crane on Reservoir avenue. Mrs. Crane used nasturtiums for her decorations. Some among those present were Mrs. Louis Underwood, Mrs. S. S. Peck, Mrs. Frank Applin, Mrs. Fiebig, Mrs. A. G. Prescott, Mrs. E. E. Thayer, Miss Marie Hair, Mrs. Ray B. Rietow, Mrs. James Guild, Mrs. Ernest Giesecke.

Mrs. A. G. Hodgins Entertains at Cards.

Mrs. A. G. Hodgins entertained some of her friends informally at cards yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hodgins' home was artistically decorated with ferns and cut flowers. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. William Williamson, Miss Barrie Gamble and Mrs. William Montrose Graham carried away dainty prizes. Some among the guests were Mrs. E. M. Watson, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Edward Dekam, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Barrie Gamble, Mrs. Bessie Abbott Howland, Mrs. S. D. Barnes, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Mrs. Antonio Perry, Miss K. Woodford.

Honolulu Girl in Oakland.

Members of the younger set will be interested to know that pretty Miss Madeline Ross has graduated from Miss Merrimen's School for Girls in Oakland in December. Miss Ross was formerly a Honolulu girl and she spends an occasional summer here, though her home is on the mainland. Her last visit was during the past summer, when she was entertained extensively by the younger folks. At her recent graduation Miss Ross received many beautiful gifts and quantities of flowers. Possessing an unusually lovely soprano voice Miss Ross is a favorite in all musical circles in Oakland and figures prominently in the social affairs of the younger set in the bay city.

Col. and Mrs. Reynolds' Tea.

Entertaining informally at their home in Nuuanu valley, Col. and Mrs. P. P. Reynolds were host and hostess at a tea on Sunday afternoon for Col. and Mrs. William P. Kendall and Col. Rudolph G. Ebert of the Department Hospital. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms, ferns and cut flowers. The ladies assisting the hostess were Mrs. F. H. Foucar and Mrs. Jay D. Whitman, who presided over the tea and coffee tables, and Mrs. William R. Davis, who served eggnog. Some among those who called were Colonel and Mrs. William P. Kendall, Madame A. Bougardier, Col. Robert Col. and Mrs. J. B. McDonald, Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Capt. and Mrs. A. P. Clark, Capt. and Mrs. Samuel Creighton, Capt. and Mrs. Owen, Jr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper and Mrs. F. H. Foucar, Capt. and Mrs. James E. Mount, Capt. and Mrs. William R. Davis, Capt. and Mrs. S. W. French.

Dinner at Fort Shafter.

Mrs. J. B. de Ford, who is visiting at Fort Shafter, was guest of honor at a supper at which Captain and Mrs. Robert McCleave entertained after the post dancing class on Thursday evening. Dainty cut flowers and ferns ornamented the center of the table. The guests who were present were Mrs. J. B. de Ford, Colonel and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Major and Mrs. E. V. Smith, Mrs. Mary Gunn, Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell, Mr. Robert Couvay, Captain and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Captain and Mrs. George S. Gibbs, Captain and Mrs. Paul Malone, Captain and Mrs. Knowles, Lieut. and Mrs. P. Edgerley, Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredenhal, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas C. Spencer, Lieut. and Mrs. Homer N. Preston, Lieut. Adrian K. Polhemus and the host and hostess.

Luncheon at the Young Hotel.

An informal luncheon at the Young Hotel was that at which the Princess Kalaniana'ole was guest of honor. Covers were laid for Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. Gussie Schmitt, Mrs. Elizabeth Booth, Mrs. E. S. Cunha and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth.

Mrs. Sam Peck Entertains.

Mrs. S. S. Peck entertained at cards at her home in Kaimuki this afternoon. Mrs. Peck used nasturtiums and maidenhair for her decorations.

Mrs. Alonzo Gartley's Luncheon for Mrs. H. W. Lyon.

Mrs. Alonzo Gartley entertained for Mrs. H. W. Lyon, wife of Admiral Lyon, at a pol luncheon at her home in Nuuanu valley on Thursday.

Mrs. Sarah Newcomb Entertains.

Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, wife of Admiral Moore, Mrs. R. M. Cutts, wife of Captain Cutts, and Mrs. H. W. Lyon, wife of Admiral Lyon, were the guests of honor at an informal bridge afternoon on Monday at which Mrs. Sarah Newcomb was hostess.

For Miss Ballentyne.

Mrs. E. M. Watson has issued cards for a luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Irma Ballentyne, whose marriage to Mr. Clifford White will take place sometime during the spring.

Society Personals

Miss Clemence Gifford is entertaining at a dance this evening for some of the academy students.

Miss Alice Cooke has issued invitations to a dance at the Country Club on Monday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Matson, who have been visiting for some weeks in Honolulu, will return to Portland in the Wilhelmina, leaving here the latter part of the month.

Mrs. H. W. Lyon, wife of Admiral Lyon, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lyman W. V. Kennon, wife of Col. L. W. V. Kennon, U. S. A., will be the house-guest of Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore at Pearl City this week-end.

Mrs. William G. Irwin has left her pretty home in San Francisco for a few weeks and is visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Crocker at Hillsborough.

The army folk at the several army posts are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the transport next week, for among the passengers will be a number of new officials who have been assigned to Hawaii.

Miss Inez Gibson and Miss Dorothy Hawk, two popular members of the Academy set, have left Punahou Academy this year. Miss Hawk is planning to leave for the mainland in the early spring and Miss Gibson is going to take a course in domestic science at the College of Hawaii.

Mrs. Francis Hinkle, wife of Captain F. M. Hinkle of Fort Ruger, who has been visiting relatives on the mainland for several months, is expected to return to Honolulu in the next transport. Mrs. Hinkle is one of the most charming of the army matrons in the islands and her many friends are eagerly anticipating her return.

Miss Carol Low, who recently returned from the mainland, is spending several weeks on Kauai as the guest of Mrs. Albert Wilcox. During her stay on the Garden Island Miss Low will conduct a series of dancing classes on Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week. Before returning to Honolulu Miss Low will be joined by her mother, Mrs. Eben P. Low, who will spend a short time on Kauai.

Miss Dorothy Hurd, who visited Honolulu two years ago as the house-guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hurd, has written that she will arrive in Honolulu next Tuesday to make an indefinite stay here. Miss Hurd was entertained extensively during her sojourn in the islands and the host of friends she made here will be delighted to hear that she is to return.

Miss Hurd will be accompanied by Miss Louise McManis, another society girl, who, like Miss Hurd, is from Wichita, Kansas.

Rankin-Orange Wedding Party.

The wedding of Mr. Guy F. Rankin of Makaweli and Miss Ida L. Orange of Kekaha, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knudsen, in Kekaha, Saturday evening, January 2, was one of the most brilliant social events of the season.

The nuptial ceremony, which took place at an early hour, was quite simple but very pretty. Mrs. Charles A. Rice of Lihue was matron of honor and Mr. Carl Bayer of Makaweli best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Marie Anderson of Hanapepe and Miss Louise Day of Lihue. Rev. C. D. Milliken, of Waimea, was the officiating clergyman.

After the ceremony the entire party sat down to an elaborate wedding banquet.

At about 8 o'clock other guests began arriving and the wedding reception took place. This over, dancing began and was kept up until a late hour.

In the meanwhile Mr. and Mrs. Rankin slipped away to the mountain house of the Knudsens.—Garden Island.

New Year's Eve.

Numerous dinners and house parties all over the island marked New Year's eve. There were no really big events anywhere, the largest probably being the opening of Kalaheo hall. String bands were out in Waimea, visiting also other neighboring towns; and all along the line around to Kilauea, or chestras were out serenading. The Hanaele Glee Club visited Lihue and the music was much enjoyed.—Garden Island.

Elele Society Notes.

Capt. and Mrs. George B. Leavitt were host and hostess at a very prettily appointed dinner on New Year's eve, their guests being Mrs. Hastie, Misses Eva, Janet, Marion and Maile Hastie, and Messrs. Eby, Dillingham, Alsapugh and Miller.

Mrs. Pillar, Misses Grace and Frances Pillar and Messrs. Harry Moler, Miller and Eklund enjoyed a trip to Olokele canyon on New Year's day.—Garden Island.

Miss Jessie Lee Deems and her mother, also Misses Grace and Frances Pillar, returned to Honolulu in Saturday's Kinau.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moler entertained at dinner New Year's eve for Mr. Eklund and Harry Moler.

Miss Maile Hastie returned to the normal school in Honolulu by Saturday's Kinau.

Dance at Koloa.

Some of the people of Koloa gave a very pleasant dancing party in the town hall New Year's eve, between 40 and 60 couples being present. Excellent music was supplied by a local orchestra. Sandwiches and refreshments were served during the evening. All fortunate enough to be present had a most enjoyable time.—Garden Island.
